Welcome from the Dean

Welcome to the College of Liberal Arts. Thank you for selecting Morgan State University. This is an exciting time for you, and I encourage you to take advantage of all that Morgan State University and the College of Liberal Arts has to offer you. One of the goals in the College of Liberal Arts is to “transform lives for the benefit of society,” and it does this by providing the environment and resources you will need to develop skills and knowledge in your chosen field of study.

Your intended major is within one of the following College’s academic programs: Economics, English and Language Arts (Screenwriting & Animation), Fine Arts (Music, Art, &Theater) Philosophy & Religious Studies, Political Science and International Studies, Psychology, Sociology and Anthropology and concentration in World Languages.

The James E. Lewis Museum of Art and Culture and the Lillie Carroll Jackson Museum of Civil Rights are artistic and historical expressions of African-American and African culture that are available for you as a Morganite. The last unit within the College is the Army Reserved Officer Training Corp (ROTC) known as the Bear Battalion for those interested in serving as officers of our nation’s armed services.

Again, thank you for your interest and for selecting Morgan State University and the College of Liberal Arts. I look forward to seeing you on campus. The College is committed to your reaching excellence. We want you to lead the world, as you grow your own future.

Again welcome,

Pamela E. Scott-Johnson, PhD
Interim Dean
Professor of Psychology
