MSU Modern Dance Ensemble Hosts Dance Festival

Performance to showcase talent of area churches and schools

Morgan State University's Modern Dance Ensemble is preparing to host its 33rd Annual Dorothy P. Stanley Scholarship Dance Festival.

On Friday, November 13, and Saturday November 14, performers from local high schools, dance schools, churches, colleges and universities will showcase their talents in the Gilliam Concert Hall in the Murphy Fine Arts Center beginning at 8 p.m. on both nights.

The shows will feature performances by guest artists who are members of the Dallas Black Dance Theatre II Company.

Tickets are $5 with student ID for Morgan State students, and $10 for adults and general admission. For additional and advance sale information, contact Dr. Iantha Tucker at 443-885-3463.

Morgan State University, founded in 1867, is a Carnegie-classified doctoral research professional institution offering more than 60 academic programs leading to bachelor's degrees as well as programs at the master's and doctoral levels. As Maryland's public urban university, Morgan serves a multi-ethnic and multi-racial student body and seeks to ensure that the doors of higher education are opened as wide as possible to as many as possible.
