America's Best College Choir Prepares for Annual Christmas Concert

The Morgan State University Choir, dubbed by Reader's Digest Magazine as America's Best College Choir, is set to host its annual Christmas concert on Sunday, December 13, 2009.

MSU's choir will perform in the Murphy Fine Arts Center's Gilliam Concert Hall, beginning at 4:00 p.m. The world-renowned MSU choir, under the direction of Dr. Eric Conway, will render several classic holiday selections along with a special presentation to outgoing president Earl S. Richardson.

Tickets range from $10-$25, and can be purchased through the President's Committee for the MSU Choir, or through the Murphy Fine Arts Center ticket office. For more information on the concert, visit www.msuchoir.com or www.murphyfineartscenter.org.

For ticket information, call 443-885-3507, and for the Murphy Fine Arts Center ticket office, call 443-885-4440, or visit ticketmaster.com on the Web.

Morgan State University, founded in 1867, is a Carnegie-classified doctoral research professional institution offering more than 60 academic programs leading to bachelor's degrees as well as programs at the master's and doctoral levels. As Maryland's public urban university, Morgan serves a multi-ethnic and multi-racial student body and seeks to ensure that the doors of higher education are opened as wide as possible to as many as possible.
