

MORGAN STATE UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES
FINANCIAL CERTIFICATE
2020-2021

You are required to certify that you currently have sufficient funds to pay for tuition, fees, and books for your first year in graduate studies at Morgan State University. Likewise, you are required to certify that you will have funding from the same or equally dependable source for your final three (3) years. Currently, the amount of funding needed for certification is $40,500.00. (U.S. Dollars). Be advised that tuition, fees, and other costs may be subject to annual increases. If you are married and plan to bring your family, a proportionately larger amount must be certified on the basis of at least an additional $7,500 for your spouse and $5,500 for each child.

If you are depending on funds from a source outside the United States and restrictions exist on the export of money from your country, you must present an official statement (ORIGINAL), not more than six months old from your bank or Embassy Official that funds will be made available to you for your entire length of study. A bank statement, not more than six months old must be provided for each source of funding (personal, family and/or friend). If the bank statement is not that of the student, then the owner of the account must send a notarized letter attesting that the necessary funds in their account will be made available to pay for the student's educational expenses in the United States. If applicable, submit evidence of any financial assistance (scholarship or loan) and renewal terms along with this form.

International students can apply for financial aid through the School of Graduate Studies; however, there is no guarantee of funding. Therefore, it is the responsibility of the student for all expenses incurred while in the United States.
