BEAT THE STREETS STEM WRESTLING CAMP

Description: Beat the Streets (BTS) is the only wrestling camp that offers a hybrid program that includes STEM research, health management, and academic development. The focus of the summer program is to link resources from Education Resources Centers to the K-12 methods teacher education curriculum. BTS and Morgan State University have collaborated to develop a framework for STEM teaching and learning experiences.

Campers will work in small groups to develop a bio-engineered solution via robotics for unclean wrestling mats. This portion of the camp will reinforce math and science skills in addition to the introduction to the world of coding and robotics. Each camper will create a video of their experience and these activities will be followed-up and linked to the 2021 Morgan State University Annual Mathematics-Science-Engineering Fair and participation in the Beat the Streets Wrestling program. Submitting a project in the Regional Science and Engineering Fair is required to participate in this opportunity.

This camp provides our youth wrestlers the opportunity to learn not only the fundamental skills of wrestling but the same cutting edge technique shown to world-class college and world level wrestlers. The campers will participate in a wrestling dual tournaments in Hershey, PA.
