

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

Intimate partner violence affects the entire campus community.

- 43% of dating college women and 28% of college men report experiencing violent and abusive dating behaviors
- 21% of full-time employed adults identified themselves as victims of intimate partner violence

LET'S HELP STOP THE VIOLENCE ON OUR CAMPUS!

SPONSORED BY:

Morgan State University Office of Diversity and EEO and Office of Residence Life and Housing

WEAR PURPLE DAY

OCTOBER 13, 2016

Wear your purple in recognition of Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Information cards and purple ribbons distributed on campus; 12 pm — 2 pm

INFORMATION TABLE

OCTOBER 20, 2016

Stop by the table in the Student Center to receive information on domestic/dating violence prevention and show your support for the No More Campaign. 11 am — 2 pm.

DATING DO'S AND DON'T'S

OCTOBER 27, 2016

Panel discussion and Q&A featuring speakers from the House of Ruth, University Counseling Center and Campus Police. Graves School of Business, Room 112; 6 pm — 7:30 pm