

Frequently Asked Questions about Living on Campus

The Office of Residence Life & Housing has compiled answers to the most frequently asked questions by both students and parents. If you are unable to find the answer to your question(s) please feel free to contact us a (443) 885-3217 and one of our staff members will be happy to answer your question.

Is campus housing available for freshman? Is housing guaranteed?

About 40 percent of freshman live on campus and take advantage of the programming and convenience of residence life. Housing is not guaranteed, so it is important to pay your admissions enrollment fee and housing application fee as soon as possible. Accommodation in traditional residence halls is provided to undergraduate students. The Halls provided for freshmen students are Blount Towers (female), Harper Tubman House (Honors preferred), O'Connell Hall (male), Cummings House (Female), Baldwin Hall (male), Rawlings Hall (male), and Thurgood Marshall Complex (freshman male). Marble Hall Apartments are coed and provided for upperclassmen students. Every residential facility on campus is air-conditioned.

How do I apply to live in on-campus housing?

Students must first apply and be admitted to the University. Students interested in living on campus should complete an application on our housing portal <https://reslife2.morgan.edu:4431/page/housing>. Application for Housing and Food Contract and attach the non-refundable application fee of $200 which is to be paid while applying using a debit or credit card. The application fee is a processing fee that a small portion of which is applied to the support services and resources offered to students who choose to live on campus. Because space is limited, the recommended date for submitting a housing application is July 1. Applications will be accepted after July 1, but space may be extremely limited by then.

Are first year students required to live on campus?

Residency on campus is voluntary and there is no requirement for freshmen or other students to live on campus. All newly enrolled students who live on campus in the residence halls, however, must participate in a University dining plan.

Once I have submitted my application, what is my next step?

A student will be notified via electronic communication, via their University-issued email address, that his or her application and the $200 non-refundable fee have been received. Further correspondence during the summer will be sent informing the student of the ability to select their space in a room. Receipt of this notification does not mean that a space has been confirmed or a housing assignment is guaranteed.

Housing assignments will be sent to the applicant's University-issued email account. The Office of Residence Life & Housing expects students to make satisfactory financial arrangements to cover the entire cost of tuition, fees, room and board by the established University deadline of August 1. An Assignment Coordinator will be happy to speak with you in order to ensure that satisfactory financial arrangements have been made by August 1 and prior to your arrival on campus. We do not encourage students without a confirmed housing assignment to come to campus on arrival day with the expectation of receiving a housing assignment that day. Please call (443) 885-3217 for assistance with this process.

Do I need a meal plan? If so, how do I sign up for a meal plan?

All students residing in University housing must have a meal plan except for those residing in Marble Hall Gardens. Residence of Rawlings, Blount, O'Connell, Baldwin, Cummings, and Harper-Tubman must have a meal plan for 14 meals per week or 19 meals per week. The meal plan that is included in the housing application contract is for 14 meals per week. Students desiring a meal plan larger than 14 meals per week must log into our housing portal <https://reslife2.morgan.edu:4431/page/housing> to request a larger meal plan. Thurgood Marshall Complex residents can choose from a meal plan for 10, 14, or 19 meals per week. Residents of Marble Hall Gardens can choose from any meal plan: Any 25, 50, 75, or 100 meals per semester or a plan for 5, 7, 10, 14, or 19 meals per week.

Can I request my roommate, and if so what process applies?

Yes, you can request a roommate. Students must submit the roommate request through the online housing portal <https://reslife2.morgan.edu:4431/page/housing>. A student must have completed a housing application prior to requesting a roommate. ORL&H will make every effort to honor the request; however, an automated system is used and matching is based upon completion of the established criteria i.e. mutual selection of each other and building preference at the point of assignment. Requests must be mutual, if not, the roommate request may not be accommodated. If a student does not request a specific roommate, one will be assigned to him/her.

How do you assign rooms to new incoming students?

We assign rooms on a first come, first served basis. Students are given an opportunity from July 1st to July 31st to select their space. All student who do not participate in this process will be assigned based on the information provided on the completed housing application. We suggest that new students apply as early as possible in order to have sufficient time to complete the process of making satisfactory financial arrangements for the cost of attendance for the Fall Semester. Please note that the deadline for payment of tuition, fees, room and board, as established by The Office of the Bursar, is typically in early August.

When will I know my room assignment?

Assignments for new students are processed in mid to late July and are sent only to a student's MSU-issued email address. It is the student's responsibility to monitor his or her MSU email account for housing information.
