Organizational Chart

President Wilson briefed the Board on the revised University’s organizational chart and indicated the areas of additions and/or changes. One example of the revisions to the chart is the staff increase in the Office of the General Counsel. The Office of Finance and Management will have new leadership a permanent Vice President for Finance and Management is appointed. The organizational chart will go into effect July 1, 2014 and there will be a fiscal impact associated with the new chart.

Update on Institutional Advancement and the Role of the Board in Fundraising

Ms. Cheryl Hitchcock, Vice President for Institutional Advancement and Mr. James Langley, Consultant, shared information on the following topics:

2013 Benchmarking Report
Alumni Participation in Giving

To benchmark Morgan’s performance against peers and other institutions of higher education, please note the Council for Aid to Education’s (CAE) Voluntary Support of Education (VSE) fiscal 2013 survey findings were 4.91 percent to all publics reporting to VSE, 14.7 percent to all private higher education institutions reporting to VSE, and 7.25 percent to all HBCUs reporting to VSE.

Morgan ended calendar 2013 with official alumni participation rate in giving of 16.52 percent, a 19 percent increase over 2012 and a 155 percent increase in the rate of alumni giving since 2010.

Sampling of FY 2013 Alumni Participation Rates providing average gift information for such schools as Bowie, Carnegie-Mellon, Morgan, University of Wisconsin-Madison, to name a few.

Morgan State Campaign
Tested the feasibility of a $50 million campaign in 2012;
Saw the potential of raising between $41.1 and $50.0;
Reaching the high bar would require securing half the total in $1 million + gifts, two $5 million gifts; and $18 million secured to date, low volume of seven-figure gifts.

Leadership Giving Requires:
The leadership example of the Board;
National average is 25 percent of the total; and
If not you, who?

Leadership Giving Requires:
Audacious but attainable vision; and
Belief in the institution’s agency;
-Donor’s don’t just want to give to Morgan, they want to give through it to create a more just world; and
-Good to great, strength on strength.

Mr. Langley continued the presentation and brought fundraising information on feasibility studies for other universities, having a good coach, and the role of the Board (see attached).

Master Plan Summary

Morgan’s Core Values are excellence, integrity, respect, diversity, innovation and leadership.

Excellence in everything we do.
Integrity is at the heart of the value of this institution. We are on display. We are a learning institution.

Respect – This is a University environment and there are different points of view. We respect those points of view and we have created an environment here that is valued.

Diversity – Eighty percent of our students are Black. But we live in a global village. Students on this campus represents 50 countries and different races. We value diversity and hold that high.

Innovation – An institution cannot stand still. You have to look at how to make things better.

Leadership is a top priority at the University.

The Strategic Goals at Morgan are enhancing student success, enhancing Morgan’s status as a doctoral research University, improving and sustaining our infrastructure in our operational processing, growing our resources and engaging with the community in transforming northeast Baltimore.

MSU National Alumni Association Presentation

Ms. Jacqueline Lawson, President

The mission is to promote the interest, welfare, and excellence of the University.

- Strength and extend relationships among alumni;
- Keep alumni informed;
- Recruit students; and Provide financial support/assist in fundraising.

The total number of alumni is over 30,000. The types of membership are life, annual and associate. There are 36 chapters across the U.S. and Caribbean Islands.

The Association focus is on increasing alumni and giving.

Scholarships and financial assistance are provided to students to study abroad, tuition, summer internships, to name a few.

One of the challenges and goals of the Association includes increasing the Alumni Association base at a faster pace while retaining others: develop and implement incentives for life-long engagement with alma mater (see attached).
Update on Master Plan
Strategic and Capital Planning Goals (see attached)

Enhance student success and promote access to education’
Enhance MSU as a research doctoral institution;
Environmental sustainability of the University; and Enhance campus community and establish relationship with external constituents.
